

Berthold, Victor M

[See: Worthington, George H.]

1911

V. M. BERTHOLD,
15 DEY STREET,
NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, April 19, 1911.

Mr. B. L. Belden, Director,
American Numismatic Society,
Audubon Park,
New York.

Dear Sir:-

I have just received the following note from Mr. George H. Worthington, of Cleveland, Ohio:-

"Dear Mr. Berthold:- Your favor of the 12th inst came duly to hand. I will be in New York early next week. Will certainly call and see you, and if possible, pinch out enough time to call on Mr. Belden. . . ."

I write today to Mr. Worthington to ask him either to telegraph or advise me by mail two days in advance of his coming to New York. As soon as I have this information I will put myself in communication with you and make an appointment for meeting between you and Mr. Worthington.

Kindly acknowledge this note and also give me the telephone number by which I can reach you. If my memory serves me right you are always at the Museum from 10 till 12 a.m. and from 1 till 4 p.m. Am I right?

Awaiting the pleasure of your answer, I am,

Very truly yours,

The signature is written in cursive ink and reads "Victor M. Berthold". The name is written in a flowing, continuous script, with "Victor" on the first line and "M. Berthold" on the second line.

April 21st, 1911.

Mr. Victor M. Bethold,
15 Dey Street,
New York.

Dear Sir:

I was away yesterday consequently did not receive your letter of April 19th until this morning.

I will be very glad to see you and Mr. Worthington any time next week. My telephone number is 2434 Audubon. I am usually here from 10:30 until 5 o'clock. It would be just as well, however, to call me up so as to be sure not to miss me.

Anticipating the pleasure of seeing you again, I am,

Very truly yours,

Director.
